For Immediate Release

Monya Rowe Gallery is moving to 34 Orchard Street.

The new gallery, located in the Lower East Side at 34 Orchard Street (between Hester and Canal), is a ground floor location with a larger exhibition space. The gallery is positioned between Miguel Abreu Gallery and Kerry Schuss.

Minor renovations on the new space will occur in August, but the existing charm of the space, such as the 25 year-old import/export hosiery sign, and the gold and black façade, will remain.

The opening reception for the inaugural group exhibition of gallery artists will take place on September 8, featuring the work of Larissa Bates, Natasha Bowdoin, Angela Dufresne, Vera Iliatova, Jake Longstreth, Joe Pflieger, Jacolby Satterwhite, Mark Schubert and Ann Toebe.

The gallery will also have additional exhibition space in the basement level, where Jacolby Satterwhite will exhibit a video.

We sincerely appreciate your support and visits to the gallery throughout the years. We look forward to seeing you in September to celebrate this new and exciting endeavor.
