Mises en abyme.

Monya Rowe Gallery, 224 West 30th Street,
Suite 304; through November 23.

This gallery shows work from excellent creators off the art-world radar, such as Gretchen Scherer's exquisite small oil and acrylic paintings of panels featuring art collections and museums. They look like faceted jewels depicting eccentric installation strategies, like the walk-in wonder cabinet of London's Sir John Soane's Museum. JERRY SALTZ
